- 1. A four-story brick building, approximately 30 x 40 meters, which was located in the southeastern section of Chuguyev (49°50°N/36°41°E), Ukrainian S.S.R., was called a codet school. The students were between 18 and 25 years old and wore blue air force uniforms with two yellow diagonal stripes on the epaulets. The building was probably an air force officer school.
- 2. The occupation strength was estimated to be about 200 men. The trainees were seen playing football, doing close order drill and attending instruction. Except for small arms such as rifles and submachine guns, no weapons were noticed.
